

Moving Forward with High School Redesign at SHS

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR PARENTS & STUDENTS?

What is High School Redesign (HSR) and Why Should I Care?

- HSR is a government initiative which is focused on students! It is based upon 9 core ideas which Sundre High will be implementing in the 2015-2016 school year.
- From data collected from students during mentorship as well as conversations among teachers and parents we have identified some areas of emphasis:

Currently students feel that their in school workload and homework cause me a great deal of stress/anxiety

Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
27%	35%	21%	7%

Currently students feel that they have enough time to complete assignments or projects during the school day

Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
5%	37%	37%	8%

What Changes Will You See At SHS Next Year?

Flexibility/Personalization of learning to individual students!

- Students will be given time and guidance during the school day to identify areas of personal interest or growth
- A different timetable with a “flex block” built in which students can use to seek out extra support from teachers and work on projects with peers.
- Great support to help students achieve your absolute best!
